

THE Country SHOPPER

Issue 441 • Oct. 2, 2010

Restaurants contributing to Food Bank fund-raiser

A number of local restaurants and eateries will donate their time and food at The Food Bank for Westchester's An Evening in Good Taste to help end childhood hunger in Westchester County. The event will take place on Thursday, Oct. 21 from 6 to 9, at 1133 Westchester Avenue in White Plains. All money raised at the event will help the Food Bank fight childhood hunger in Westchester.

Participating restaurants will include Moderne Barn of Armonk, Restaurant North of Armonk, Crabtree's Kittle House of Chappaqua, Connie's Bakery & General Store of Mount Kisco, Mt. Kisco Seafood & The Fish Cellar Restaurant of Mount Kisco, and Myong Private Label Gourmet of Mount Kisco.

"For every dollar donated to the Food Bank, we can purchase $4 worth of nutritious food to feed a hungry child. Every bit helps," said Christina Rohatynskyj, Food Bank executive director. "This annual event is imperative to helping the fight against childhood hunger here."

The evening will also include "Incredible

New Edibles," which will showcase the area's artisan/boutique foods and wines from such restaurants and caterers as Flour & Sun Bakery of Pleasantville, Prospero Winery of Pleasantville, Red Barn Bakery of Bedford, and Reva's Outrageous Cookies of Armonk.

A silent auction will feature foursomes at Westchester golf courses, Broadway theater tickets; spa days; exclusive gift baskets; experiences with TV entertainers and producers; and more.

Entergy is the Lead Sponsor. Additional supporters include All Star Marketing, MBIA, Bleakley Platt & Schmidt, DLC Management, MasterCard International, Greenfield Stein & Senior, Diversified Investment Advisors, Kraft Foods, and Reckson Division of SL Green.

The Food Bank for Westchester is at 358 Saw Mill River Road in Millwood.

Tickets cost $175 in advance and $200 at the door. Additional sponsorships are available. To purchase tickets, or for sponsor information, contact Katy Coppinger at 914-923-1100 or katy.coppinger@foodbankforwestchester.org.