

NORTHERN WESTCHESTER EXPRESS

The Journal News | THURSDAY, July 8, 2010

NONPROFIT NEWS

Food Bank awards heroes at breakfast

The Food Bank for Westchester recently hosted its Fifth Annual Hunger Heroes Awards Breakfast.

The breakfast honored individuals' and organizations' contributions toward alleviating hunger in Westchester.

David H. Bowman, a 95-year-old resident of Mount Vernon, received the Volunteer Award for volunteering at Trinity Food Pantry in Mount Vernon every week for the past 10 years.

Holy Rosary Soup Kitchen and Pantry, Port Chester, received the Service Provider Award.

The Junior League of Bronxville received the Donor Award for sponsoring the Back Pack Buddies Program.

PepsiCo Foundation, PepsiCo and its operating divisions were honored with the Corporate Service award for their support of the Food Bank through their local and national volunteer efforts, food drives and financial contributions.

Stop&Shop was awarded the Golden Scoop award for repacking the most pinto beans at the Food Bank's recent Corporate Give Back Olympics.

Submitted by the Food Bank for Westchester.

John Vecchiolla Photography

Linda Fears of Chappaqua, left, editor-in-chief, Family Circle Magazine; Christina Rohatynskij of Mount Vernon, executive director, Food Bank for Westchester; Judy Matson of Chappaqua, event co-chair; and Spencer Barback of White Plains, president of Food Bank board of directors.