WHITE PLAINS: The Food Bank for Westchester held its 20th annual An Evening in Good Taste to End Childhood Hunger benefit recently in White Plains. More than 600 people attended the event, raising more than $200,000 to help the Food Bank fight childhood hunger.

In addition to a silent auction, the "Every Child Deserves a Lunch" campaign raised more than $8,000 to provide food to children in the Food Bank's Kids Cafe and Backpack programs. Kids Cafe serves more than 900 Westchester children, and the Backpack Program serves more than 1,500 children.

The Food Bank for Westchester is at 358 Saw Mill River Road, Millwood. For more information, visit www.foodbankforwestchester.org or call 914-923-1100.
