PBC Gives Back Day: Ed

by PBC Gives Back

Last week I lead a group of 30 Pepsi volunteers to help out at the Food Bank of Westchester. This is the third year I've been leading a team for the Pepsi Gives Back program, because it makes me feel proud to work for a company that gives back to the community. I selected the Food Bank of Westchester because it helps needy families and people in our own county. Last year alone, it distributed over 6 million pounds of food to Westchester residents. Despite last Friday's 90-degree temperatures, our team worked hard inside a hot warehouse, sorting, categorizing, checking and re-packaging food donations to prepare them for distribution. Some of the volunteers have already expressed an interest in returning with other people from Pepsi at a future date. This project is a true testament to Pepsi's dedication to "Performance with Purpose". Ed Yee - Senior Finance Analyst, ... Read more
