1. State Audit of the Town of Yorktown

The final state audit of the town of Yorktown was released on Friday. Read the full story here.

2. "Dine Out to End Hunger"

Thinking of dining out this week? This Wednesday, Aug. 17 is a great night to do it for the inaugural Miss Westchester and Miss Hudson Valley Pageants "Dine Out to End Hunger" which benefits Food Bank for Westchester. You can supporting the event by simply dining at Vintage Restaurant & Bar, 171 Main Street in White Plains and 10 percent of your bill will be donated to Food Bank for Westchester. Miss Westchester 2011, Christine DeLeon (Yorktown resident), and Miss Westchester Teen 2011, Samantha Gold, will be on hand to welcome diners. To make reservations call 914-328-5803.

3. Bike on the BRP

Throw the bikes in the car (sounds counter-intuitive, but stay with me here) for "Bicycle Sundays on the Bronx River Parkway," which resumes this fall for three consecutive Sundays, on Sept. 11, 18 and Sept. 25. Plan now to join in-line skaters, joggers, walkers and those with scooters and strollers. Your family can do the 13.1-mile round-trip after parking at the County Center for $4. It's relatively flat and closed to cars, and you can eat at City Limits Diner in White Plains as a reward for your hard work.

4. Serve and Learn

From the Volunteer Center of the United Way: "On Friday, Sept. 9, 2011, people from all walks of life will gather to commemorate the 10th anniversary of 9/11. In an action to rekindle the spirit of unity that followed the tragic events of Sept. 11, The Volunteer Center of United Way is inviting area residents to honor local victims and heroes by engaging in service to help build a stronger community." You can sign up today for the event, which will take place Friday, Sept. 9, at the County Center in White Plains, 2 p.m. to 7 p.m., and is open to the public for free. More info here.

5. Your Monday Forecast

According to the National Weather Service, there is a 90 percent chance of showers and possibly a thunderstorm. Temperatures will be in the high near 76. Monday night there is also chance of showers and thunderstorms. It will be mostly cloudy, with a low around 64.
