

WESTCHESTER RISING

Friday, January 14, 2011

Food Stamp Application Help from Food Bank for Westchester

As food prices continue to go up, many are feeling the pinch. Need help? The Food Bank of Westchester is there for you and only a phone call away.

Food stamp assistance is offered to both English- and Spanish-speaking applicants free of cost. Group presentations and personalized house calls to senior or disabled residents are all available per request.

Simply contact Marilyn Rivera at 914-923-1100 or marilyn.rivera@foodbankforwestchester.org for eligibility requirements, or visit www.foodbankforwestchester.org.

Remember, no one should go to bed hungry.